ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

~~There is provided a~~ A method of preparing an oil sample for X-ray fluorescence analysis of the concentration of sulfur in the oil sample at a minimum limit of determination of about 10 to 30 ppb by concentrating sulfur through sedimentation or filtration. A ~~liquid catalyst~~ 15 sulfur-capturing liquid from which S ~~was~~ is substantially removed ~~almost completely~~ is used, whereby S contained in an oil sample 16 is extracted, sedimented and concentrated as a silver sulfide-containing sulfur compound 18.
